Preface

This is a great time to invest in Medical Tourism in Colombia

We are experiencing a historical moment in growth and development. Years of innovation and top quality medical care have consolidated our health sector. We are ready to make the leap and become a worldwide health care provider. Your investment will help us reach this goal faster.

Colombia offers unique conditions for your investment and a package of benefits specially designed to improve your business options, including the possibility of establishing a Free Trade Zone for Health Services, with excellent taxes and operations incentives.

In this document you will discover our competitive advantages, our achievements over the years, the experiences of people who have dealt with us in the past and the benefits favoring your investment. You will also understand how Proexport can support you when you invest in Colombia and how we can help you consolidate a better project.

Some of the reasons you will find in this document include:

• Colombia has the best health system in Latin America, and it is ranked 22 in the world.
• Colombia allocates 7.3% of its GDP and 13.9 % of its public expenditure to healthcare.
• Colombia is only 3 hours away by plane from Miami and less than 6 hours from New York, Washington, Houston, São Paulo, Mexico and Buenos Aires.
• In Colombia, medical procedures cost between 10% and 35% of the prices in the United States.
• Colombia has a history of medical innovation and achievement, resulting in the current international recognition of the country and its doctors.
• Colombia has 5% of the world market share in tourism for curative medicine. With our work plan we hope to reach between 20% and 30% of this share by 2032.
• The Pacemaker, Hakim’s Valve and the vaccine against Malaria were invented in Colombia. The first trachea transplant in the world was also performed in Colombia.

There are millions of reasons. Here we will only present a few ones so you can find the best opportunity of investment in Medical Tourism in Colombia.
Colombia has the best health system in Latin America and it is ranked 22 in the world.

According to figures from the World Health Organization, the Colombian health system is one of the best in the developing world. It is at the same level as Sweden or Belgium, and in fact it is better than the health systems in the United States and Canada.
The government provides great support to the healthcare system. Colombia allocates 7.3% of its GDP and 13.9% of its public expenditure to healthcare.

Health Expenditure has grown systematically in Colombia over recent years, largely due to the commitment of the central government. The healthcare system in Colombia receives strong public investment ensuring its operation and outstanding coverage; the government provides 86% of the total expenditure for healthcare. Colombia allocates 7.5% of its GDP to health, one of the highest ratios in Latin America.

Current Investors

These are some of the main entities working in Medical Tourism already operating in Colombia.

Reforms in the healthcare sector have increased the coverage to 85% of the population, and life expectancy to 72.5 years

Law 100 of 1993 reformed the healthcare sector increasing the coverage of healthcare services from 30% to 85%. Likewise, life expectancy—an indicator reflecting the quality of the healthcare sector in a country, increased from 68.2 to 72.5 years. Healthcare expenditure per capita has also increased.

BBC World. March 6, 2005.
Medical procedures in Colombia cost between 10% and 35% of the prices in the United States.

Costs in Colombia are among the most competitive in Latin America in terms of surgery, medical treatment and medication. It is possible to receive treatments for only 10% of the cost in the United States.

Entities receiving medical tourism patients have over 80% occupation, thus an opportunity for new investments

A recent survey done by Proexport of leading institutions who receive Medical Tourism patients shows a high occupancy rate for beds, operating rooms and intensive care units, indicating an opportunity for new investments to take advantage of the good moment of the sector.

The enterprise that applies for the implementation of the Vallejo Plan acquires the following commitments:

- Export services worth at least 1.5 of the FOB price of the imported capital goods.
- Constitute a global guarantee of a bank or an insurance agency that is worth the 20% of the FOB price of the authorized imports in the program.

Legal Stability Agreements

Through these agreements, the Colombian Government guarantees investors that if during the life of a contract, legislation is passed adversely affecting any of the rules identified in the agreement as having been "a determining factor to make the investment", they will be entitled to continue operating under the prior rule during the term of the corresponding agreement.

The period of such agreements may vary between 3 and 20 years, and they may cover new investments or increases of existing ones for amounts equal to or above 150,000 UVT – Units of Tax Value equivalent to COP $3.6 billion (approximately USD 1.8 million based on a COP$2,000 = USD 1 reference rate of exchange). The investor must pay the Government a premium equal to 1% of the amount of the investment made every year, or 0.5% thereof during non-productive periods.

1 The Instituto Barraquer de América is one of the most famous optical surgery facilities in the world. It is recognized for its quality and innovation.
Medical Tourism is one of the industries with highest growth rate in the world. Over the next 3 years, 15 million North Americans will undergo procedures abroad.

Colombia has also been the pioneer in high complexity surgeries:

- First trachea transplant in the world. 2003, Dr. Luis Fernando Tintinago.
- Second larynx transplant in the world. 2002, Dr. Luis Fernando Tintinago.
- First bone marrow transplant in Latin America.
- First liver transplant in Latin America.

Medical Tourism is one of the industries with highest growth rate in the world. Over the next 3 years, 15 million North Americans will undergo procedures abroad.

Colombia has great potential to receive this flow due to its geographic proximity to the United States and because of remarkable cost differences.

Colombia offers special characteristics that make us a great potential destination for your investment in tourism; particularly in terms of the incentives package we are offering to investors in the sector.

Income tax exemption on:

- 30 years of income tax exemption for new hotels built between 2003 and 2018.
- Hotel services provided in hotels remodeled and/or expanded up to 2018, prorated to the amount that the cost of remodeling and/or expansion represents with regard to the total taxable cost of the remodeled or expanded piece of real estate, the tax exemption applies for a 30 years period.
- Ecotourism services, during 20 years beginning in 2003.

Income Tax deductions

Likewise, investors in the tourism sector are entitled to a 40% deduction on the amount of their investments made only in real fixed productive assets acquired.

Special Free Trade Zone for Services

The Free Trade Zone status is granted to an individual company undertaking a new investment project. In order to qualify, the company must meet one of the following investment and job creation ranges:

This information is presented in dollars using a USD 1 = COP $2,000 exchange rate. For 2009, the M.M.L.W. is COP $496,900. The M.M.L.W., as well as the exchange rate, are subject to variations.

Colombia has 5% of the market share in tourism for curative medicine. With our work plan we hope to reach between 20% and 30% of this share by 2032.

Medical Tourism seeking curative medicine carries around 80 thousand passengers per year in the world. Colombia attracts more than 4 thousand of them, but with the productive transformation program for the sector, it may reach between 20% and 30% of world tourism by 2032.¹

Colombia has agreements with international health insurance companies who send patients from abroad, pursuing top quality procedures at lower costs.

Around 40% of the medical tourists seeking curative medicine arrive through agreements with international health insurance companies (HMO’s). European insurance firms –mainly Dutch based– having coverage in the Caribbean, consider Colombia as an alternative for their patients to receive first level treatment at a lower cost and shorter waiting times.

There are four types of Medical Tourism with great investment potential:

- Curative: Patients seeking medical treatment abroad for diseases they already have, as well as transplants or nonelective surgeries.
- Preventive: Patients trying to prevent potential diseases. In their country they have to wait for a long time to get an appointment or their costs are very high. This includes Executive Medical Check-Ups.
- Aesthetic: Patients wishing to undergo elective surgery, essentially to improve their looks. They are looking for better quality than the one available in their countries or lower costs. These include orthodoncy and dental esthetics.
- Wellness: Passengers who want to relax and have a change of routine. These include spas and tourism to thermal spring waters.

Additionally, investment in infrastructure supporting tourism of this type like special hotels, tailored services, training centers, tourist operators and rehabilitation centers also have a high chance of success.

This is a great time to invest in Medical Tourism in Colombia

We are experiencing a historical moment in growth and development. Years of innovation and top quality medical care have consolidated our health sector. We are ready to make the leap and become a worldwide health care provider. Your investment will help us reach this goal faster.

Colombia offers unique conditions for your investment and a package of benefits specially designed to improve your business options, including the possibility of establishing a Free Trade Zone for Health Services, with excellent taxes and operations incentives.

In this document you will discover our competitive advantages, our achievements over the years, the experiences of people who have dealt with us in the past and the benefits favoring your investment. You will also understand how Proexport can support you when you invest in Colombia and how we can help you consolidate a better project.

Some of the reasons you will find in this document include:

• Colombia has the best health system in Latin America, and it is ranked 22 in the world.
• Colombia allocates 7.3% of its GDP and 13.9% of its public expenditure to healthcare.
• Colombia is only 3 hours away by plane from Miami and less than 6 hours from New York, Washington, Houston, São Paulo, Mexico and Buenos Aires.
• In Colombia, medical procedures cost between 30% and 35% of the prices in the United States.
• Colombia has a history of medical innovation and achievement, resulting in the current international recognition of the country and its doctors.
• Colombia has 5% of the world market share in tourism for curative medicine. With our work plan we hope to reach between 20% and 30% of this share by 2032.
• The Pacemaker, Hakim’s Valve and the vaccine against Malaria were invented in Colombia. The first trachea transplant in the world was also performed in Colombia.

There are millions of reasons. Here we will only present a few ones so you can find the best opportunity of investment in Medical Tourism in Colombia.
